MAYER, ARIZONA 86333

The first fifty years are past, and they have been great. As sure as the sun sets and the moon rises, the next fifty will be even better. We, the students, hold the future in our hands. Our parents have given us all the love and support possible. With the help of God and a strong individual effort, we will do the same for the next generation. We believe in ourselves and look forward to the challenge.

Graduation 1980

The graduation in May, 1980, was a very special event. The Governor of Arizona gave a speech, along with the senior class president, salutatorian and valedictorian. Many good students left to go to college, and we wish them all the best of luck in the future.

Spring Caravan 1980

The Spring Caravan sent students and teachers on four trips: one North, and three South. Main Caravan visited such places as Alamos and San Carlos. The students welcomed the opportunity to sunbathe on the warm beaches and visit neighboring towns. Another group went to Caborca and did a variety of exciting things. The Mexico/Guadalajara trip was a fun trip, and the students went to see everything from museums to pyramids. To the North, in Utah, students rafted down part of the Green River. Caravan was welcomed and enjoyed by all.

SURVIVAL - 1980-81

The survival program has had a very successful year; 40 students went through beginning survival and 16 students went through advanced survival. Having endured severe winter storms the past few years, the weather was especially cooperative for the successful completion of the advanced program; many weekend projects were undertaken.

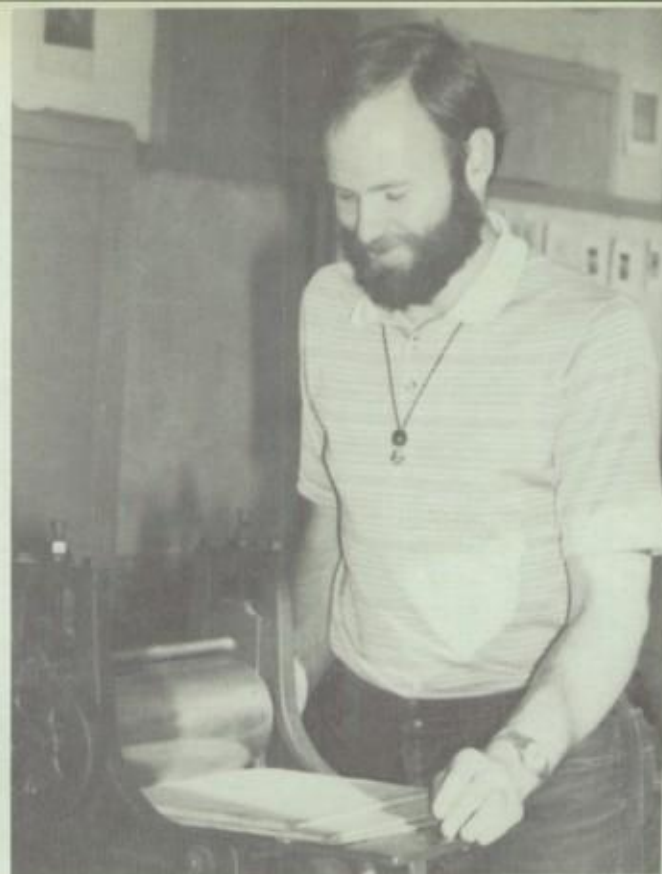

Mr. Don Sargent, new faculty member this year, has been a fine addition to the program. He was responsible for giving the survival truck a much needed, new look.

Fine Arts Festival

The Fine Arts Festival has always been the most welcomed event of the year. This year many workshop leaders returned to Orme to share their talents with the students. Some new faces joined the artists and were received warmly, and they plan to return again next year. The atmosphere during this week was productive but peaceful! Workshop leaders, teachers and students enjoyed the spirit of the week and the break from classes that it offered.

Go For It

The offensive line play has established a winning tradition respected by all. This year, the team competed on a level with the top class B schools and even a class AA school. The offensive line will lose four starting seniors, but a strong junior varsity of twenty three will supply replacements for next year.

The starting backfield included three seniors, who gained many yards through large offensive holes. The blocking, lead by Dave Lapkin and Mike Erlin had other teams looking for a way to stop it. During all the games, adjustments along the line in blocking were the reason for Orme's success.

The awards this year went to senior Todd Los Banos - offensive back, junior Mike Erlin - offensive line, senior Bob Wilmeth - defensive line, senior Dave Lapkin - defensive back, junior Mike Erlin - Coach's Award, senior Scott Wentz - Most Improved.

Volleyball

The volleyball team established its goals early in the season and then began the task of accomplishing them. After four independent league wins and two close losses to Mayer, Orme reached its first goal. In, what Coach Rowe described as; "some of the finest high school volleyball I've seen,". Orme defeated Camp Verde in three games.

Having reached their first goal, the Warriors prepared for the state volleyball tournament, the second "item" on their list. Orme lost a hard-fought match to Judson which saw the Warriors fight back repeatedly on to fall two points short. The Warriors showed the pride that had been built up during the season and rallied to finish 3rd in the tournament.

Coach Rowe summed up the season by saying; "Our athletes were stronger and better prepared physically than anyone we faced. They earned every victory through their willingness to work together and sacrifice for each other. They were a team in every sense of the word."

Cross Country

The cross country team hit hard by graduation and injuries, nonetheless improved dramatically over the course of the season. Season highlights included an early-season victory over Superior High School, strong races at home against Scottsdale Christian and Southwest Indian, and participation in the giant (8,000 people) Phoenix 10 kilometer run.

Leading the pack all season was sophomore Norris Coit. Norris's hard work earned him the Coach's Award. Seniors Allan Hilton, Dale Parker and Shinichi Manaka performed well all season; their graduation will leave a large vacuum in the starting lineup. Second year runner Bill Ames improved steadily all year and will be a leader as a senior. The returning juniors, plus younger runners like sophomore Coll Nicholson and Tim Rowe, an eighth grader with enormous potential, will form the nucleus of next year's squad.

Junior Terri Beeson led the girls team all season, and won the Coach's Award. Cross country, a sport which requires internal motivation and hard work with few accolades, shows promise for continued strength in the years ahead.

Wilmeth boots the ball

Orme had one of its best soccer teams this past season. The defense was especially efficient and the attack improved as the season progressed. Captains' Bob Wilmeth and Juan deVengoechea were important in organizing the team as a well-knot unit. With only two seniors, Orme should have a strong team next season.

Boys Basketball

The 1980-81 season was one of "unknowns". The Warriors were one of the youngest varsity basketball teams, having only one senior, four juniors, 3 sophomores and a freshman. This caused Coach Rowe to express some concern in the pre-season about the lack of experience. However, as the year progressed the team matured, working hard together to achieve, what turned out to be a successful, satisfying year.

The girls varsity team was a mass of new faces. Hurt by graduation last year, Jan Hilton and her new assistant coach, Vinnie Hutchison set about the extremely difficult task of rebuilding. Although the won-loss record was not as good as in years past, there were many improvements, which resulted in high hopes for next year.

Behind senior captains Todd Los Banos and Allan Hilton, the wrestling team showed the State that it was a force with which to contend. Los Banos (17-1), Hilton (17-3) and junior Ric Holway (16-3) led the way to a 7-1 dual meet record. This best-ever record was achieved against the toughest schedule in the school's history. The Warrior matmen averaged 45 points per meet, while yielding only 25. Of the 95 matches won this season, an amazing 70 were by pin!

Strong tournament showings established Orme's statewide reputation. A top-half team finish in each outing and a total of 15 individual placers (four championships) were the best results ever. At mid-season, the Warriors were ranked sixth among all of the small schools in Arizona.

Todd Los Banos- 17-1 (15 pins)- 1st in the Williams Tournament- 1st in the Joseph City Tournament (Outstanding Middleweight)- 2nd in the Orme Tournament - Outstanding Wrestler of the SCA Quad. Allan Hilton- 17-3 (12 pins)- 1st in the Williams Tournament (Outstanding Wrestler)- 3rd in the Orme Tournament. Ric Holway- 16-3 (10 pins)- 2nd in the Williams Tournament- 3rd in the Joseph City Tournament- 1st in the Orme Tournament.

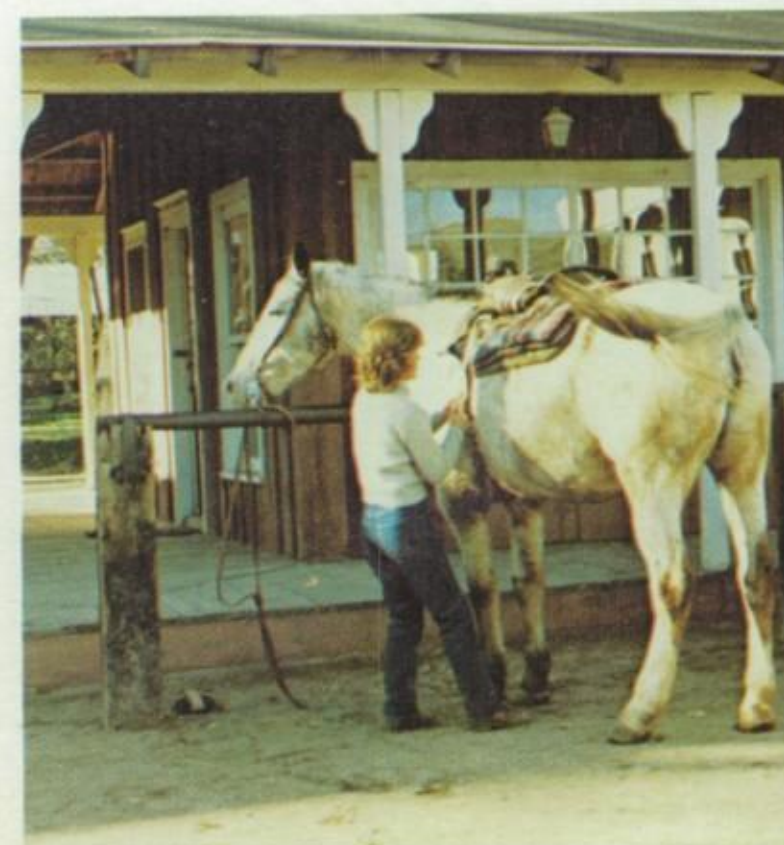

Horsemanship

If you like horses, then Orme has a lot to offer. Under director Gary Powell, you can learn rodeo, English equitation, compete for the drill team, or just enjoy the sunset while trail riding. There are many fine students who participate in the program, and some have gained national recognition during and after their years at Orme. With the help of many students and parents, next year students will have the use of a new rodeo arena.

"If you're feelin' down about the dues you've been payin' and this old world is gettin' harder to face every day, then you'd better get off the ground cause there's no where else for you to hide and it's gonna be hard just to make it through another day. Stand your ground - don't ever let nobody hold you down; it's a long and lonely road. It takes a certain kind of man to carry the load and if you want it, all you have to do is try, so get back on your feet and get out in the street; it's time to be a man, stand your ground and don't ever let nobody hold you down."

ALLAN HILTON

6,573 days; just the thought will put you in a haze. It wasn't an easy task; find a first year student and ask. They'll say it's taking too long, but what do they know about long. They haven't through eighteen Orme years gone, some of it was splended, some of it abuse, but for all of it I can find a use; I would like to tell you more, but there is much too much to be said, and if I tried to tell it all I would soon find myself dead; one single memory is worth a thousand words. The people here, well some are good, some the worst, some the best, and then as always there is just the rest, but I know I've encountered it all. I'm sure there's better places and places I'd rather be, but you can't put a price tag on what Orme has done for me. In all the beauty that I've seen, and the minds that I've turned, and the reply I've gotten in return, I know just for a moment . . . that by living I've learned.

"No haste, no pause, no rest, remember to remember. Love won't take second best. Heartache and pain won't last like old habits do. Catch up to your past before it catches up with you. Your dreams are not what they were, your heart dances to a different tune. I won't forget my word, I'll remember to remember too. Your pride will overlook your lesson, when you fall. Leave no stone unturned, don't let it slip beyond recall. Love starts to last when you do the things that you neglected to do. Forever your haunting past will blind you to love." And so I'll remember Orme with its good times and its bad. The years will pass, but not a day will go by. You can get out of life what you put into it, and so I begin my endless journey to lose and gain. Thanks a lot to you, my Mom and Dad for giving me so many things that I wouldn't otherwise have received.

I don't want to do things for people so that I will be 'nice'. Yes, I am moody, and you put me in my best mood. "A pure heart and a pure mind are all that God requires of man; let his piety choose what form it will, so long as it is genuine." — Carl H. Cornill Having read so much about the bad effects of smoking he decided to give up reading. So, so you think you can tell Heaven from Hell, blue skies from pain. Can you tell a green field from a cold steel rail? A smile from a veil? Do you think you can tell? and did they get you to trade your heroes for ghosts? Hot ashes for trees? Hot air for a cool breeze? Cold comfort for change? And did you exchange a walk on part in the war for a lead role in a cage? We're just two lost souls swimming in a fish bowl, year after year, running over the same old ground. What have we found? The same old fears. Welcome to the Machine — What did you dream? CHAPEL COMMITTEE

Chapel Committee is a group of students sponsored by Mr. Garst who plan and organize chapel services. Chapel is held on Sundays and Wednesdays. The services often include music and guest speakers. It is a major part of Orme life, a calm, quiet time. The year's Committee has worked hard and successfully to make services interesting and inspiring to the community.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

The purpose of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes huddle is to bring together Orme athletes to talk about their concerns, feelings and faith. Teammates join together in fellowship and share their commitment to Jesus Christ around the common bond of Christianity and sports.

"Spring Rodeo . . . In The New Arena"

Under the direction of Gary Powell, The Horsemanship Director for 9 years, The Orme Rodeo Association saw dreams come true with the construction of a new arena. With the help of many parents, students and ground construction by Bruce McDonald, the arena was opened in early spring. The arena made the Spring Rodeo a big success. All-Around Cowboy went to Scott Sims, and All-Around Cowgirl went to Robyn Barrett.

Many long hours of fund raising and planning were directed by Darla Powell. The new arena is one of the finest in all of Central Arizona. Many new Horsemanship Programs will be held here in the future. We would like to thank everyone involved and wish Gary and Darla the very best future.

Under the direction of Music Director Julia Romagnano, this year's Extravaganza was terrific. A lot of credit also goes to this year's dance instructor Sherri Dent. The combined performance of choral, sextet and dancers provided entertainment for all. We will surely miss Julia's many skills and talents, and wish her the very best in the future. We will never forget "Quarter Pounder".
